

2019 VIVO IPL Awards

The following are the awards that will be presented during the 2019 VIVO IPL.

MATCH AWARDS

League Matches – Man of the Match (RS 1 Lakh prize money per match & trophy)

The Man of the Match will be chosen by members of the television commentary team covering the match. A trophy and a cheque for RS 1 Lakh will be presented by either a franchise owner and/or a representative of a franchise principal sponsor to the Man of the Match.

Playoffs – Man of the Match (RS 5 Lakh prize money per match & trophy)

The Man of the Match will be chosen by members of the television commentary team covering the match. A trophy and a cheque for RS 5 Lakh will be awarded by BCCI to the Man of the Match in each of the Playoffs.

VIVO Perfect Catch of the Match (RS 1 Lakh prize money per match, trophy and a VIVO phone)

A cheque of RS 1 Lakh, trophy and a VIVO phone will be awarded by VIVO to the player who takes the best catch in each match as selected by the television commentators.

Harrier Super Striker of the Match (RS 1 Lakh prize money per match & trophy)

A cheque of RS 1 Lakh and a trophy will be awarded by Harrier to the player who has the highest batting strike rate in a match. To be eligible for the award, the player must have faced a minimum of 10 balls.

fbf Stylish Player of the Match (RS 1 Lakh prize money per match & trophy)

A cheque of RS 1 Lakh and a trophy will be awarded by fbf to the Stylish Player of the Match. The most stylish player of the match will be selected by the commentary panel. They will award points to players based on the combination of performance and style (confidence, appearance, stroke play, ability to remain cool/calm under pressure, attitude, etc.).

Dream11 GameChanger of the Match (RS 1 Lakh prize money per match & trophy)

A cheque of RS 1 Lakh and a trophy will be awarded by Dream11 to the GameChanger of the Match. The GameChanger of the match will be selected by the commentary panel. This will be awarded to the player who may have been involved in a game changing moment. i.e a player who takes a crucial wicket that changes the course of the game, a player who puts on some crucial runs that is the difference between the two teams or a fielder who effects a run out which changes the course of the game.

Orange Cap

The Orange Cap will be worn while fielding by the batsman who has scored the most runs in the league (including the Playoffs) during the season to date. It is first awarded once each team has played at least one match and then changes hands when another batsman becomes the highest run scorer in the league to date. The Orange Cap is presented to the batsman at the end of the innings in which he achieves this feat (either at one of the flash interviews or at the post-match presentation). In the circumstance where two or more batsmen have scored the same number of runs during the season to date, the Orange Cap will be retained or awarded, as appropriate, to the batsman (of those who are tied) who has the higher strike rate during the season to date.

Purple Cap

The Purple Cap will be worn while fielding by the bowler who has taken the most wickets in the league (including the Playoffs) during the season to date. It is first awarded once each team has played at least one match and then changes hands when another bowler becomes the highest wicket taker in the league to date. The Purple Cap is presented to the bowler at the end of the innings in which he achieves this feat (either at one of the flash interviews or at the post-match presentation). In the circumstance where two or more bowlers have taken the same number of wickets during the season to date, the Purple Cap will be retained or awarded, as appropriate, to the bowler (of those who are tied) who has the lowest economy rate during the season to date.

SEASON AWARDS

Pitch and Ground Awards (RS 50 Lakh prize money and trophy for grounds that have hosted 7 or more matches; RS 25 Lakh prize money and trophy for grounds that have hosted less than 7 matches)

These two awards will be given by BCCI to the State Associations whose grounds are ranked the best by the IPL Match Referees and Umpires over the course of the IPL season. A pitch and outfield evaluation will be completed after each match by the IPL Match Referee in consultation with the on-field and 3rd Umpires and will consider the criteria listed below. In the event of a tie prize money will be shared. Points are awarded per match based on the following criteria;

1. Did the pitch play the same throughout the match for both innings?
2. Did the pitch have good pace and ball carry?
3. Was the bounce of the pitch consistent?
4. Was the amount of lateral seam movement on offer fair?
5. Was the amount of spin on offer fair (i.e. not excessive)?
6. Overall evaluation of the pitch and outfield.
